

1891-009 Chancery Causes: Lem Hamacker vs. M. McCormick bc
Lee Co.

Richmond

CA-Debt
T-Property

Virginia, Lee County, to wit.

To the honorable H. S. K. Morrison Judge of the circuit court of said County.

Your orator Lem Hamaker, humbly complaining sheweth unto your honor that one M. McCormick is justly indebted to him in the sum of $350.48 which became due and payable on the 31st day of August 1891. an account of which is herewith filed as part hereof marked "A", no part of which has been paid; that the said McCormick is a nonresident of this State, but has estate or debts due him in this State & County; that one J. B. Richmond is indebted to said McCormick in a sum equal to or sufficient to pay your orator's said claim. The object therefore of this suit is to obtain a decree in favor of your orator against said McCormick for the amount of his said claim and to attach and subject to the payment thereof any estate of the said defendant in this County and especially the amount due to said defendant from the said Richmond. To this end your orator prays that the said McCormick & Richmond be made the parties defendant to this bill and required to answer the same on oath, and on a hearing a decree be rendered in favor of your orator against said McCormick for the amount of his said debt and that said

Richmond be decreed to pay to your orator, out of the amount due from him to said McCormick, a sum sufficient to pay said decree & the costs of this suit. And for all further and general relief, May process issue &c. And your orator will ever pray &c.
